CREAM OF NEWS.

The Steam Laundry.

The young men heretofore acting as agents of outside laundries have all given up their agencies, recognizing the great value to the city of the recently established steam laundry.

This is the right spirit to show and our citizens who have not heretofore patronized Mr. Metcalf should hereafter do so and give a proper encouragement to his enterprise. His work is of the very best, his prices very reasonable and his service prompt and remarkably free from mistakes.

He has received overtures from other cities to locate with his laundry, but as long as Hopkinsville properly sustains him he expects to remain here. We are glad to know that the laundry is already paying expenses, but our people should see that it does more than this.

A Stolen Horse Recovered.

On the 7th of June J. P. Cox, of Henderson, had a horse stolen. About the 12th a stray horse was found near Fairview by Elbert Cobb and the night before Frank Charlton lost a mare and colt. The police heard that Cox had lost a horse and sent him a description of the animal taken up by Cobb. On last Sunday Cox came to this city and on Monday identified the stray as his horse stolen a month before and took it back with him. Charlton has never recovered his mare. The thief probably found the horse giving out and made the change at Charlton's expense.

Commissioner Flack.

Gov. Buckner has accepted the resignation of Mr. Geo. O. Thompson and on Tuesday appointed Mr. E. M. Flack commissioner of the Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum for the unexpired term of four and a half years. This appointment is one of the very best that could have been made.

A Maniac Killed.

J. W. Pardo, a white man, killed Jno. Hunter, col., in Montgomery county, Tenn., Saturday evening. Hunter was a raving maniac who was on the warpath and attacked Pardo in a ferocious manner and the latter shot him in self defense. Hunter was perfectly nude and was armed with a rock and a gun barrel.

That much discussed subject, the weather, has received a full share of attention this week and everybody has volunteered the information that "the weather is warm" just because the mercury in the thermometers have been lingering near the blood heat point. Does anybody expect to see a snow storm in July?

A ball has been announced to take place in the Sebree house, at Sebree, Ky., on the night of the 18th inst. Good music has been secured and a grand time is expected. A good crowd is now at those popular springs and orders for rooms are being daily received. This will doubtless be a very prosperous season for Mr. Barnes, the new proprietor.

A mixture of a teaspoonful of honey, a teaspoonful of sweet oil and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of alum is said to be an excellent remedy for whooping cough. A lady who has tried it recommends it in the highest terms. A dose of this kind given at bed time will prevent coughing or throwing up during the night and enable the victim to get relief and much needed sleep. As the disease is now very prevalent, we publish this remedy for the good it may do.

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect, and the perfect safety, with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

FLOWERS FOR THE DEAD.

The Graves of Deceased Knights Decorated by Their Pythian Brethren.

Yesterday was the day set apart by Evergreen Lodge K. of P. to decorate the graves of deceased members buried in local cemeteries.

Since its organization the Lodge has lost eleven members by death. Of these L. E. Payne and John T. Wright are buried in country graveyards. Louis Solomon is buried in the Jewish cemetery in the eastern edge of town and the following eight in the City Cemetery: James O. Ellis, Richard B. Ellis, Wm. L. Twyman, Wm. P. McPherson, J. Wallace Nelson, Chas. G. Shanklin, John W. Winfree and R. William Henry.

The Lodge was called to meet at Castle Hall, on Main street, at 5 p. m., and marched to the City Cemetery under command of Past Grand Chancellor Abernathy. A committee of young ladies accompanied the Lodge in carriages and after a short and appropriate address of five or ten minutes by Knight G. M. B-ll, the floral decorations were placed upon the eight graves by the young ladies.

A committee was delegated to go to the Jewish Cemetery and decorate the grave of Knight Solomon.

At night the officers for the ensuing six months were publicly installed at Castle Hall and Mr. James Breathitt delivered an address on "Pythianism." These exercises were attended by a large number of the friends of the order, including many ladies.

Evergreen Lodge now has 103 members and is in a flourishing condition.

THE NINTH STREET CUT.

The work of cutting down the hill on Ninth street, between Virginia and Railroad streets, is still going ahead and the street now resembles a deep cut for a railroad. In fact strangers are liable to conclude that work is being pushed ahead on one of the connections for the new railroad we didn't get. The City Council regarded this work as imperatively necessary to drain the flat about the depot, the large sewer having been found inadequate. The plan is to take down the street about four or five feet and property owners on the line are doing some very vigorous kicking. Those whose lots are most affected are A. C. Overshiner, Mrs. M. E. Rodgers, the Christian Church, Dr. J. A. Gunn and C. W. Ducker. Mr. Overshiner will be left high and dry about eight feet above the street level and he has employed counsel to demand damages and to prevent the city from lowering and relaying the pavement fronting his property at his expense. Mrs. Rodgers, whose house is on a line with the pavement, will have to build a stone wall to hold up her house when the pavement is lowered. She will also claim damages. Several very handsome shade trees have been dug up and all those left will be destroyed when the work is completed. It is not known what view of the matter the other interested parties take. The city authorities claim that the improvement will be one that will enhance the value of the lots, but upon this question there is a great diversity of opinion.

MATRIMONIAL.

Married in Clarksville, Tenn., by Dr. Sear, July 4, Wm. P. Thompson and Miss Martha Irene Brown, both of Trenton.

GLENN DULIN—At the residence of the sheriff, W. M. West, in this city, Wednesday morning, July 10, Mr. Neel Glenn and Miss Mollie Dulin were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Lewis, of the Methodist church. Only a few friends and relatives were present and the bridal couple left immediately for Madisonville on the 10 o'clock train.

Mr. Glenn is the junior editor of the Hopkins County Hustler and is a young man of splendid character, liberal mental endowments and excellent capacity as a newspaper man. His bride is a daughter of Mr. E. F. Dulin, of Morton's Gap. She is a young lady of striking beauty and many lovely traits and varied accomplishments have made her a social favorite wherever she has visited. She has frequently been a visitor in Hopkinsville and her many friends here wish her much joy in the years to come. To Mr. Glenn the KENTUCKIAN extends its congratulations and fraternal blessings.

OWEN WHITLOW—Mr. Frank Owen, of Bellevue, and Miss Clara Whitlow, of this city, were married Tuesday at the residence of Mr. Lee Hall, near Montgomery, Trigg county. At night they had a reception given them at the residence of Mr. E. A. Owen, father of the groom, on the Cornelian Springs road, in the Bellevue neighborhood. The KENTUCKIAN wishes them the fullest realization of their fondest hopes of happiness.

The constitutional conventions in the new states are getting down to work slowly. So far the appointment of committees is about all that has been done. Two Dakotas already have a joint constitution adopted in 1885 and modifying this to some extent and dividing the territorial assets and liabilities is about all they will have to do. The others will have to form entirely new constitutions.

Examine the date on the margin of your paper, or the wrapper, and see to it that it is renewed in time.
